

Girl Scout Badge Requirement Activities
Requirements for the Junior Aerospace and Sky Search badges
the Challenger Center can help fulfill:

Aerospace: (Six activities required.)

1. Make and fly a simple glider.
2. Talk to older people about air travel before 1950.
3. Watch a space launch (on videotape).
4. Learn about NASA
5. Learn about women pilots and astronauts.
6. Learn about Space Flight “Spin-offs” and astronaut food.

Sky Search: (Six activities required.)

1. Mapping the Skies – learn how to use a star map.
2. Constellations – identify at least five
3. Direction, Please – learn about and use the North Star
4. Planets – learn about and observe the planets visible to the naked eye
5. Connect the Dots – sky explanations from ancient cultures.
6. Tools of the Trade – learn about and use a telescope
7. Time for the Moon – learn about and observe the Moon
8. The Sky is Falling – learn about and observe meteors, meteorites, and comets
9. Star Stamps – create space-related letter, envelope, and stamp.
10. Mission Space – learn about current space mission.

Requirements for the Senior and Cadet Space Exploration badge
the Challenger Center can help fulfill:

Skill Builders:

1. Astronomical Phenomena
2. Learn about the history of Space Exploration
3. Learn about the Sun/Moon/Earth Relationship

Technology:

1. Telescopes
2. Principles of Flight

Service Project:

1. Help with a Brownie or Junior Girl Scout mission here at the LHVCC

Career Exploration:

1. Attend the LHVCC "space day camp"
2. Careers relating to Astronomy and Space Exploration.